Dear Ms. Day:

Thank you for writing Director Casey, for whom I am responding, requesting a speaker from the Central Intelligence Agency to address the American Defense Foundation Seminar in December.

Regrettably, the Agency cannot accommodate the many requests for briefings it receives from the private sector. It is our philosophy that what we cannot do for all we should not do for one.

I suggest you contact the Department of State. They are the Executive Department in the Federal Government for all matters relating to terrorism. Their address is:

Office of Public Affairs
 Department of State
 2201 C Street, N.W.
 Washington, D.C. 20520

Enclosed for your interest and information is our brochure
Intelligence: Acme of Skill. We thank you for your interest.

Sincerely,

Mr. William Casey
Director of the CIA
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey,

The American Defense Foundation, a non-profit organization is currently planning to hold a seminar on Capitol Hill in early December exploring the subject of terrorism. Presently we are searching for experts within this field and hope you can help us.

In order to provide an informative and interesting agenda, we would welcome any experts on the subject of terrorism that you may have. We plan to have a variety of authorities from all areas of government and a representative from the CIA is essential, we feel, to complete our program.

I am writing to request a list of possible speakers for our program. These speakers will be addressing primarily interns who work on Capitol Hill and in other areas of government.

Our seminars are designed to be educational for young adults. These seminars have been very successful. Past participants have included special assistant to the President, Dr. Constantine Menges, Career Ambassador and former Under Secretary of State U. Alexis Johnson, and Ambassador to the United Nations, Charles Lichenstein.

Thank you for your time and assistance.

Sincerely,

Janet Prescott Day
